A Message from the PresidentBetty Ann DesRochesbades@cox.net

Greetings and major hugs, fellow gardeners!

Are you wanting to help with the country's situation like me? When my RN sister from LA tested positive (she's fine and at home), I wanted to tag team and take her place somehow, but I'm not a good candidate 😞 Thanks to those of you who are working on the front line for us and are brushing the dust off those diplomas to go back in!

We can contribute in other ways that will also help ground us and community members – April is the month of Earth Day and there are many things we can do now from home as individuals and collectively as garden clubs. Here is a website with examples of 25 things to do - even though most of us have been working towards this, seemingly forever:

<https://www.conserve-energy-future.com/different-ways-to-celebrate-earth-day.php>

Aren't the satellite images of China and Italy amazing, showing the clear atmosphere while factories, etc. are shut down? Surely, we can't shut down our factories, but it just shows the difference we humans make. Let's not forget that as we move forward – little actions can add up.

We will miss Dr. Laurie Fox's April presentation but she's ready to join us when we get back together. As a water steward, I'm lucky to find normalcy by working in the gardens at HRAREC with Laurie Tuesday mornings. Last week we tried to address how these times challenge our mental health. We talked about how places like Norfolk Botanical Garden's outdoor areas are open for us (as of this writing). Besides gardening, I find comfort in the annual nesting visit from a Mallard couple around our backyard pool – this is the first year that Matt hasn't tried to get the dogs to shoo them away (the dogs love the ducks 😊!).

Laurie also shared the following from a colleague, Carol A. Heiser, Education Section Manager, Habitat Education Coordinator, Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries:

Habitat at Home: A New Awakening*(March 23, 2020)*

This morning as I waited for my coffee to brew, I went outside for my usual wake-up walk around the yard. My yard is my sanctuary, the place where I relax, reflex, wonder and smile. I woke up restless today, my mind troubled and scattered by the craziness of the corona virus, needing to be reassured that somehow all will still be well with the world. As usual, it only took a few steps out the back door to see a bit of nature to confirm that she is indeed very alive and well, thank you.

I kind of feel like Dorothy opening up the door in the land of Oz, because as soon as I walk out, I see hundreds of little spider webs outlined by the rising mist from last night's rain. Some webs are on the ground, nestled among the dried leaves that I had very intentionally not raked up last fall, because fallen leaves are hugely important habitat for so many wildlife species. The leaves provide structure for the webs of funnel weaving spiders. You can see each web has a small hole where the spider hides in wait, ever ready for the slightest vibration of an insect that might happen along and become this morning's breakfast. Spiders gotta eat too, you know. Other webs are suspended from the upper branches of shrubs, made by sheetweb spiders in the shape of Grandma's old bowl and doily tea set; hence the creature is aptly named the bowl-and-doily spider. The geometry of their architecture is stunning.

Meanwhile, the Carolina wren that lives in the shrubs next to my porch is singing her morning rounds, heartily proclaiming another new day. "Yes," she seems to say, "we are still here, we've always been here, and we're going to get through this."

Being outside helps me feel refreshed and ready to face another day. Despite our difficulties and the daily warnings on the news, nature is always here to inspire and uplift. This is my invitation to you, to find a bit of time today to go outside and see the life all around you, just waiting to be discovered. What's in your Habitat at Home?

*Yours in conservation,
Carol*

I hope you all are able to lift your spirits and those of others through nature, gardening and Earth Day actions!

*XO
Betty Ann*

The Council received a thank you note (below) from the Ceramic Designers Association regarding the annual Empty Bowls Dinner.

March 30, 2020Dear Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach Members,

On behalf of the Ceramic Designers' Association Empty Bowls Charity Dinner, I would like to thank you for your support of the 2020 annual dinner that was to be held in partnership with Virginia Wesleyan University on March 13, 2020. CDA is truly saddened that we had to cancel the 2020 Empty Bowls Dinner so close to the event and we offer our sincere apologies for the short notice given to you. In light of the sudden proliferation of the coronavirus, we decided that it was in the best interest of our patrons and volunteers to cancel; envision a crowd of 500 people attending and handling bowls that had been handled by too many unknown people. As small as the risk may have been, it seemed best to err on the side of caution especially for our guests who might be more vulnerable. Given the unknown with Covid-19, it would be difficult to re-schedule the event at this time. As such, Empty Bowls will take place during the regular time frame of mid-March 2021. We value your support of this fundraiser to help feed the hungry and hope that you will continue to support Empty Bowls in the future.

*Sincerely,Pam GraySecretary, Ceramic Designers Association, Empty BowlsArbor Day*Johnnie Millerjmill61558@verizon.net

Perhaps, you are beginning to feel as though you are having a bad dream and just can't wake up. This is a time in our lives that we will never forget but, hopefully, it has brought some good things to your life - an appreciation for your family, friends, neighbors, workers and helpers. It is not easy being a "shut-in". But we have our gardens and yards to look over and watch SPRING slowly begin to arrive. And that makes me happy.

Now, to say what I need to say: As Chairman of Arbor Day, I still don't know if our celebration of Arbor Day will be cancelled. My membership packet from the Arbor Day Foundation arrived last week and there are some wise words which I want to share:

Trees give us breathtaking beauty, awe-inspiring splendor and the opportunity to reconnect with the gentle grandeur of the natural world. And, best of all, America's forests are our inheritance. Their preservation will be our legacy.

Please stay safe. Be kind and try to smile. I send air hugs to all.

PublicityAdele Lundquistlundquac@cox.net

757-717-1953 (C)

One of the things I try to do as your Council Publicity Chair is to help you obtain publicity for your individual clubs. This effort is becoming more difficult as our old friend, the newspaper, is on its way to becoming obsolete. I notified the Pilot when I could no longer access www.pilotonline.com/beaconphotos and was told that they will fix the link. However, they gave me another online form to use. The link is <https://www.pilotonline.com/news/vp-nw-submit-community-photos-20190906-ihlxajwxt5eqbkziy5m3w2adtu-story.html>.

We can still send photos to the e-mail address thebeacon@pilotonline.com and keep our fingers crossed to see if anything gets published. To my surprise, it did work this month when they published a photo of me placing a vase of tulips at the Whitehurst-Buffington House. Perhaps there is extra space now in the Community Scene section since the schools are closed.

To advertise an “upcoming” event on-line, we must use “City Spark” which can be accessed through your own account, Facebook or Google. I’m challenging myself, as well as you, to look for other avenues to get the word out. Facebook and the Nextdoor Neighbor website are a couple of ways. Perhaps we could publish in a civic newsletter. Please share ways in which you have been successful so that we can all benefit.

Conservation/EcologyDemaris Yearickway4@juno.com

757-422-1618

In view of the current health issues, our Bee City USA proposal to Virginia Beach City Council may be delayed.

Symsi Denson of Landscape Services will continue to check on the proposal's progress and, in the meantime, she is happy to report that the pollinator garden at Redwing Park has been planted and more plants are scheduled to be added to a new pollinator garden at the Laskin Gateway. Our committee will continue to work on our brochure so that we will be “good to go” when our application gets approved. We will update everyone as we get more information. Please enjoy your gardens which can be such a source of joy and peace during these challenging times.

From Laura Jacobson:

Here is something that we can all do to help our planet and climate change. I didn't realize this but, every year, since 2008, the world has been turning lights off for one hour, 8:30 - 9:30 pm to conserve energy for our planet. Maybe, you can make this fun and informative for your families to show your support for a healthy planet. Stay smart and healthy.

President's Award - *Control the FlowBetty Ann DesRochesbades@cox.net

757-651-6289

Although the President's Award will not be given this year, you can start working on the requirements for this award to be submitted for the 2020-2021 club year. The award is described in the yearbook on p. 37. Basically, it gives credit to clubs for their participation in the Lynnhaven River NOW Pearl Homes program in Virginia Beach.

For a Pearl Homes application, go to: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/pearlhome>

Some guidelines:

- The number of Pearl Homes that already exists among your garden club members will count.
- Recruiting new Pearl Home members among neighbors, friends, work colleagues and family counts! These members do not have to be in a garden club but must be new to the Pearl Home program.
- Winners will be awarded on a percentage basis. For example, if my club has 40 members and accumulates/totals 50 Pearl Home members, the club will have a score of $50/40 \times 100 = 125\%$. If your club has 30 members and also accumulates/totals 50 Pearl Home members, your score will be $50/30 \times 100 = 167\%$. Your club beats my club.
- There will be 2 awards – one for small clubs (1-20 members) and one for clubs with 21+ members.

Keep records – Name, Pearl Home address, new to the program, etc. There will be a chart to fill out, to make it easy, in the May Taproot! Call or email me if you have any questions.

Awards of MeritJanet Bacuzzijmbacuzzi@cs.com

757-496-5992

Unfortunately, there will be no Awards of Merit issued this year. This program will be continued in 2021.

The Award of Merit is an award given to businesses and other public building owners to recognize the beautiful, well-landscaped properties they maintain to make our city a better place to live. As you drive around our city, take the time to note the names and addresses of places that you think deserve this award.

AwardsCheryll Klobucharc-klobuchar@cox.net

757-463-4885 (H) 757-560-5589 (C)

After looking at the research and the projections concerning the COVID-19 virus, I have made the decision to cancel the Awards submissions for this year. There will be NO Awards given out at this time. This includes Council, President or Individual and ABC Awards this year.

Any work or projects done by your garden club for the 2019-2020 club year will be combined with the 2020-2021 club year awards. Therefore, keep your 2019-2020 records and add them to your 2020-2021 entries.

Refer to the 2019-2020 Cheryll Klobuchar Participation Award form below. Keep a record of your club's participation for the 2019-2020 club year and record it with your club's participation in the 2020-2021 club year.

Please contact me if you have any questions. Stay safe and healthy. Miss seeing everyone.

A Message from Norfolk Beekeepers:

Amazing Honey Bees

Just “DON’T” Do It - PLEASE Protect our Honey Bees

Every Spring-Summer, Mother Nature encourages a colony of honey bees to divide and create another colony of honey bees. The Queen and about half of her daughters leave the hive, searching for a new home. This cluster (swarm) may gather on a tree branch, a bush, your mailbox or even the picnic table in your backyard while awaiting directions from the scout bees to their new address. They are not aggressive or looking to sting you!

PLEASE DO NOT SPRAY – Call (757) 641-5933

Notify a beekeeper who will collect the swarm, free of charge! We, as consumers, rely on bountiful fruit and vegetable crops. Homeowners and business owners spraying our honey bees have an immediate and long-lasting effect on our ability to produce the food crops we all enjoy and want in our diet!

DID YOU KNOW?

Foragers are the oldest worker bees in a hive (all females) and are the only bees that most people ever see going from flower to flower. They forage for food (pollen and nectar from flowers), build and protect the hive, clean and circulate air by beating their wings.

Honey bees account for 80% of all insect pollination for over 80 food crops in Virginia. Without such pollination, we would see a significant decrease in the abundance and affordability of fruits and vegetables.

It takes about 556 workers traveling over 55,000 miles visiting 2 million flowers to gather enough nectar to make one pound of honey.

The average worker honey bee makes 1/12 of a teaspoon of honey in her lifetime. That is 5 drops of honey! Amazing!

Bee venom, the "ouch factor" most people remember, is likely a bad experience with a wasp - not a honey bee. Only a very small percentage of individuals are highly allergic to bee venom.

You do not have to have a hive in your backyard to be a beekeeper. A beekeeper promotes, protects, and educates others by "Resisting the Urge" to spray our swarms and feral honey bee colonies.
